Peter Morton evokes laughter when addressing the pre-1945 School-Leavers Reunion

PRE-1945 OLD BOYS' REUNION

Saturday 15th July saw the first of what is hoped will be a regular event within the School calendar - a re-union of Old Boys. On this occasion pre-1945 leavers were invited.

The meeting began in the School Hall where an exhibition of photographs and memorabilia was set up. This generated much interest and obviously brought back happy memories - many comments were overheard starting with "Look who's there ...", "Do you remember ...?" and "I remember doing ...", often said with particular glints in the eye. It really does seem that rascally behaviour has been ever-present within this School! After the vagaries of the weather, a cricket match between a young(er) Old Boys team and a School Sixth-form team began on the School field. It was clear from comments that the intricacies of the game were well understood - even seventy years ago.

In a dark corner of the Hall we set up a film show of Ronald Gow productions. This generated a lot of interest and more than one voice was heard to say "That's me". My thanks go to Douglas Rendell for providing and showing these films.
