EDITOR'S NOTES

Many Old Boys will no doubt have noticed the furious activity at our new cricket ground at Dunham Road.

An enthusiastic kind of amateur excavators, concretors, joiners and glaziers have succeeded in erecting a splendid new pavilion, in a beautiful setting among the trees at the Southern corner of the ground.

The pavilion is now complete and only remains to be painted a pleasant shade of green.

Meanwhile work has continued on the playing field, but although great strides have been made, it has been decided that the wicket will not be really fit until next season, and this year's home fixtures will be played at School, by kind permission of the Headmaster.
