EDITOR'S NOTES

We are back to a normal issue again. The last number of this Magazine, as far as reading matter was concerned was somewhat slender. More than our usual space was taken up by the long and growing list of members. We are now about seven hundred strong, and making us conscious of a potential membership of one thousand in the not distant future. It gives me great pleasure to look back over the years to the times when our Association membership at its inception could be counted on both hands. How many readers care to probe their memories and can call to mind the pioneers of this our Old Altrinchamian Association. Some of the original stalwarts who have steered the Association through the years from the beginning are still with us, and working with that same zeal which is characteristic of them.

Thanks on behalf of the O.A.A. to my opposite number, P. C. Dannatt, the Editor of the School Section, for his kind words on our behalf in the last number of the mag.
