EDITOR'S NOTES

One of the first letters to arrive for this issue was from W. B. Thompson, with news of his marriage, details of which are given in the appropriate column. May we extend our congratulations on this happy event? W. B. is continuing his teaching career at Sidcot School, Winscombe, Somerset.

Also in the matrimonial news is David Lindars, who wrote as follows in January: "I am finding the Old Altrinchamian most interesting, and would like to contribute, but have nothing much to write about. However, I am sending you the announcement of my wedding, and if you wish to include my name elsewhere in your columns, my future career will be in the R.A.M.C. for the next 2 years. I shall be called up in the next two or three weeks. My twin brother Frederick, who was my best man, will be ordained as deacon some time this summer at Durham Cathedral. We both enjoy reading about those whom we used to know so well and hope that perhaps our brief news may be of interest to them." Thank you for your news, David, and good luck and all happiness for the future.

Robert Furniss has also written to announce his engagement.

Dr. B. N. Catchpole has been commissioned as a Lieutenant in the R.A.M.C. In April he was stationed in Germany.
