EDITOR'S NOTES

There is very little news for you this time, and the reason for this is that we receive very meagre reports of the movements of O.A.s these days. I have time and again appealed for news of what you are doing. The results of these requests are very disappointing. I expect many think that they have nothing to write about. Such is not the case. You will receive this copy before the memory of your holiday has faded. Keep a note of your activities—you may find something which will interest us. We can always rely on a good story from Camp submitted by our special correspondent. Let me hasten to add that our reporters do not, however, attend Camp free of charge or with expenses paid. When that
