EDITOR'S NOTES

Many interesting items of news have turned up for this issue, and so, without more ado, let us plunge straight in, starting with a report of the last A.G.M., held at School on 27th October, 1950.

J. S. Laver, the chairman, in reviewing the year's work, complimented the Social Committee on the success of the various gatherings which they had arranged. The careers advisory scheme was in operation and the annual reunion dinner was also a success. The football section had started the season in an auspicious manner, and he looked forward to the continued success of the Association. The members appreciated the good work done by Mr. W. Hamblin, the Headmaster, who had now retired, and he was glad Mr. Crowther was at the meeting and he was sure the good relationship would continue. C. W. T. Pochin, the hon. treasurer, submitted his report and balance sheet which was adopted. B. M. Wallis gave a report on the football section, and stated that three teams were fully engaged last season; in fact, a total of 88 games were played in which 68 members had played during the season. W. A. Hay reported on the social activities during the past year. The meeting later made the following elections for the year (in addition to the officers listed
