The Annual Reunion Dinner of the Association was held at the Unicorn Hotel, Altrincham, on Saturday, 9th April. There was a very poor attendance, only seventy-four Old Boys being present; nevertheless they enjoyed a very pleasant evening. Our President, Mr. F. Bancroft Turner, was in the chair and His Worship the Mayor of Altrincham was present.

The toast 'The Guest of Honour' was proposed by Mr. C. R. Laver and Mr. A. Hill replied. Mr. Hill retired as Senior French Master at the school last year.

'The School' was proposed by Mr. J. A. Epps, one of our University members, and the Headmaster, Mr. A. Crowther, replied for the school.

'The Association' was proposed by a Governor of the school, Councillor B. R. Byrom, and the response was by Mr. R. H. Smith.

The toastmaster was Mr. E. W. Johnson.
